PAKISTAN'S ECONOMY & FINANCE ACT

A seminar on Pakistan's Economy and the Finance Act 2024 was held on July 4, 2024, bringing together economists, policymakers, and business leaders to discuss the implications of the newly introduced Finance Act on the country's economic outlook. Key topics included the impact of tax reforms on different sectors, the challenge of managing the fiscal deficit, and strategies to stabilize the currency amid rising inflation. Mr. Ashfaq Yousuf Tola, Vice President SAFA, Former Minister of State, Chairman of Reforms & Resource Mobilization Commission and Former President (ICAP) graced the occasion as the Chief Guest.

During the seminar, Mr. Asif Haroon, Former Partner, A.F. Ferguson and Mr. Adnan Mufti, Partner, Moore Shekha & Mufti delivered comprehensive presentations on the subject. The seminar was followed by a very informative Q & A session.

Mr. Abdul Rab, member of COMMECS, extended a warm welcome to the attendees in his address. The event concluded successfully, with vote of thanks by Mr. Irfan Amanullah, President, MPF. Mr. Junaid Shekha was Master of Ceremony for the seminar.
